

BIRTHPLACE OF G. O. P. STANDS REMOTE AND UNEXCITED IN CAMPAIGN

The serene spot in this campaign-torn country today is Ripon, Wis. "Cradle of Republicanism," the historians call it. It's the town in which the Republican party was born.

ALONZO LOPER,

Sole Survivor of the Band That Founded the Republican Party and Schoolhouse Where the Organization Was Born.

